Okay. So the app that I want is a meditation creation app. So I would like to create customizable meditations depending on the mood that I'm in that day, the outcome that I wanna achieve, that sort of thing if I'm dealing with sleep problems or if I want a manifestation type of meditation for myself. And I would also like to have customizable background music along with customizable voices that are guiding me through the meditation.

Awesome. And tell me about your, target audience. Who are the users gonna be?

juiles - 00:00:41

The users are probably going to be middle to upper class women that are

So why don't we just have it research I'll have it research the market the addressable markets to this type of app and give you a go to market strategy. Alright.

juiles - 00:00:57

Sounds great.

Felipe Recalde - 00:00:58

Alright. We'll pause for here. Alright.
